

Hospiscare means
not coping alone

A gift in your Will

Can Hospiscare be a part of your legacy? It might be easier than you think.

A gift for Hospiscare

We know that providing for your friends and family comes first when thinking about your Will.

But you can also leave a gift to Hospiscare, by naming an amount or a percentage.

It is a common misconception that a legacy must be a large amount. We appreciate all donations, large or small, that can help us to continue to provide our vital services free of charge.

A legacy for the future

Hospiscare relies on a steady flow of legacies to safeguard the care of patients in the future. Gifts large or small can be used to give dedicated care and support, to the people who need us most.

A cause you can believe in Hospiscare has been providing dedicated care and compassionate support since 1982. We would not be here today without generous people leaving us a gift in their Will. See How we raise and spend money.

How do I leave a legacy?

Including Hospiscare in your Will is easy. Simply have a qualified solicitor add a short paragraph (clause) to your Will. If you want to include Hospiscare in your existing Will, ask your solicitor to attach an instruction called a 'codicil'.
