Stamps make a difference

Collecting the stamps from all your cards and letters can really make a difference for us.

Postcards and currency too

In 12 years stamps, picture postcards, British and foreign currency has raised over £125,000 for Hospiscare.

Tony Coop, who began and runs the collection, said 'Some individual stamps have sold for over £700, and we have recently raised £465 from just three envelopes.'

All stamps are appreciated, even ordinary first class. Stamps, postcards and coins can be dropped into any of the Hospiscare shops or at the hospice in Exeter.

Collect at home, work or school

If you would like to start a collection for us, we can provide you with posters and ideas to get started. Contact us or call 01392 688020.
